Proven Performance and Track Record

"The folks at Mil PCS, Inc not only helped sell the home we were leaving, they put us in touch with a phenomenal agent at our new assignment in New Jersey. We bought a beautiful home and couldn't be happier—we plan on being clients with them for a long time to come!"

- Tony and Megan C., Capt, USAF

"There are several relocation programs out there, but none compare with Mil PCS, Inc. Their real estate professionals truly care about their clients and will do everything they can to ensure your interests come first. We had several unique problems facing our move to D.C. and they handled them in stride. They have my highest recommendation!"

- Rick and Cathy M, Brig Gen, USAF

"We've been clients twice now and it has worked out beautifully. Our first investment in Charleston was a short sale that we got far under market value—our agent there was invaluable in helping us through the process. Being retired military himself, he knew full well the challenges we were facing and stayed committed through multiple trips and deployments!"

- Sherri and William G., Capt, USAF

"We were in a jam until we ran across the Mil PCS, Inc. network of agents—they got our house sold when we had little room to work with financially. Big difference between a Mil PCS agent and the one that was supposedly "looking out for us" four years ago!"

- Kevin and Lindsey M., 1LT, USAF

"Mil PCS, Inc. found us a fantastic home that suited our needs perfectly. When it came time to move, we had them rent it out for us and it has never been vacant. Their knowledge and expertise is unequaled, and they never pressured us, or gave us the usual "sales pitch". We've definitely grown to trust them and anxiously look forward to using them again in the future!"

- Bennie and Crystal H., SSgt, USAF

"I ran across Mil PCS, Inc by accident when going through training with their founder and President and he explained what they do, and that even though it was created to help military folks, it was free to use by anybody. Sure enough, I received a job offer and called them immediately explaining that I was going to be in my new city in 1 day to look for a home. Even with that short of notice, their network agent dropped everything and to complete care of my wife and I for the next few days—truly remarkable!"

- Sam M., Civilian Corporate Pilot

"I have known and been acquainted with the people of Mil PCS, Inc. both personally and professionally for several years now, and can't say enough about their professionalism, honesty, and integrity. There are numerous companies out there that claim to be "military taking care of military", but these folks definitely walk-the-walk. And the best part is that you don't have to be military to receive the exact same, top-notch service they offer. A great, trustworthy real estate agent is tough to find, and Mil PCS, Inc. has a whole network of them all across the country—and it's absolutely FREE to use!"
